NTPGA Hires Coordinator of Junior Golf Operations

The Northern Texas PGA is pleased to announce that Jordan Harris has been hired as a Coordinator of Junior Golf Operations. Jordan is a native of Bean Station, TN. He interned with the Section's tournament program in 2008 and the PGA of America's Junior Series in 2009.

He is currently completing his Business Administration Degree from Methodist College, a Professional Golf Management school located in Fayetteville, NC. Jordan is currently completing Level III of the PGM Program and is on track to be elected to PGA Membership early in 2011.

Jordan will be responsible for the administration of all Junior Tour and Community Golf activities. In addition he will provide bench strength to our Section's tournament program outside of the summer months.

Jordan is the 7th former intern on our full-time team. Other former interns working for the Northern Texas PGA include Stacey Jourdan (1996); Ryan Kossick (2005);Carolyn Wood (2005); Justin Bailey (2007); Mike Stiller (2007) and Molly O'Farrell (2009). We are pleased to have Jordan as a member of our team.
