Children's Medical Center Health & Safety Tip of the Week

The Overscheduled Kid

Sports, church activities, dance class, homework, scouts - the list goes on and on. Do you ever wonder when is busy too busy? If you're feeling overwhelmed by the amount of activities you keep track of for your kids, imagine how they must feel. Clinical neuropsychologist Pete Stavinoha says it all depends on your child. Kids should be active but also need a good balance of free time. Pay attention to your child's stress level. Sometimes it's not a matter of quitting as much as it is prioritizing.
