7th Annual Birdies for Kids Fundrasier

Unique Fund Raising Opportunity for Kids

The NTPGA is excited to let you know about a unique fundraiser that kids can be a part of called Birdies for Kids. The fundraiser was started in 2004 by seven Australians who work in the golf industry in the Dallas area. In just six years the fundraiser has raised $727,583.97 for local children's charities. This year, all proceeds will benefit the Northern Texas PGA Junior Golf Foundations' Golf in Schools Program and also the Heart Center at Children's Medical Center.

attending Texas Tech University. He plans on graduating in 2011 with a degree in Public Relations.

Logan enjoys golfing, hunting, watching college football and anything that has to do with Red Raider athletics.

Logan would ideally like to work in the sports industry on the management level or in media relations. He played in the western area of the NTPGA Junior Golf Foundation and has enjoyed giving back to the Foundation this summer.

Over the past three summers, junior golfers just like you have become "honorary Aussies" for the summer and have raised $69,391.00 for kid's charities. We need your help again this year to help raise money for the kids! We are asking all current and former NTPGA Junior Golf Foundation members to become "honorary Aussies" for the summer. Kids that participate will win great prizes from Titleist and one lucky person will even win a trip for two to Australia!

For more information, please visit www.birdiesforkids.org. Click on the "Kids Helping Kids" link. Here you will find everything you need to know to start fund raising. Every dollar helps!

Children's Medical Center Health & Safety Tip of the Week

SUN DAMAGE

Golfers are at risk for sunburn, skin cancer and eye damage from the harmful effects of the sun due to the amount of time spent outside while playing their sport. These problems can be prevented with proper protection.

- Apply generous amounts of sunscreen with a sun protection factor (SPF) of at least 30. Pay special attention to your face, nose, ears and arms. The higher the SPF, the greater the protection. It is important to wear sunscreen that has both UVA and UVB protection.
- Apply sunscreen 30 minutes prior to sun exposure to allow penetration. Re-apply every two hours while you are outdoors.
- Wear a hat. There is also SPF clothing available that provides increased protection.
- Wear sunglasses with UV protection.
- Use a lip balm with sunscreen.

For more information about golf safety, be sure to check out Children's Medical Center's golf safety guide.
