7th Annual Birdies for Kids

Fundrasier

Unique Fund Raising Opportunity for Kids

The NTPGA is excited to let you know about a unique fundraiser that kids can be a part of called Birdies for Kids. The fundraiser was started in 2004 by seven Australians who work in the golf industry in the Dallas area. In just six years the fundraiser has raised $727,583.97 for local children's charities. This year, all proceeds will benefit the Northern Texas PGA Junior Golf Foundations' Golf in Schools Program and also the Heart Center at Children's Medical Center.

Over the past three summers, junior golfers just like you have become "honorary Aussies" for the summer and have raised $69,391.00 for kid's charities. We need your help again this year to help raise money for the kids! We are asking all current and former NTPGA Junior Golf Foundation members to become "honorary Aussies" for the summer. Kids that participate will win great prizes from Titleist and one lucky person will even win a trip for two to Australia!

For more information, please visit www.birdiesforkids.org. Click on the "Kids Helping Kids" link. Here you will find everything you need to know to start fund raising. Every dollar helps!

Children's Medical Center Health & Safety Tip of the Week

Cool Treats for Hot Days

Summertime is the perfect time for a cool treat. And ice cream is a good choice - once in a while. Dietitians at Children's say there are other healthier options for cooling down on a hot summer's day. Have you ever tried frozen grapes? Or homemade Popsicle made from your favorite sugar-free drink? How about a frozen banana? To make it extra special, dip the banana in yogurt and roll it in a healthy cereal before freezing it. For more healthy snack ideas, visit Children's Medical Center.
